

A USAID Global Leadership Project

- Key technical leadership role in global human resources for health (HRH) field
- 5-year project started October 2004
- A partnership led by IntraHealth International, with IMA, Jhpiego, LATH, MSH, PATH and TRG
- Working in 24 countries, with emphasis on sub-Saharan Africa

Capacity Project Objective

To improve the quality and use of priority health care services in developing countries through

Planning

Developing and

Supporting the health workforce.

Promising Practices

- Accelerating recruitment and deployment
- Addressing work climate issues to improve retention
- Task reallocation
- Performance support

